

February 28, 1973

SPEAKER: Is there any objection? If not, it is withdrawn. Are there further amendments?

CLERK: None.

SPEAKER: Senator Cavanaugh.

SENATOR CAVANAUGH: Mr. President I move that LB 390 be advanced to E&R for engrossment.

SPEAKER: Moved and seconded to advance, is there any discussion, if not all in favor say aye, opposed say nay, it is advanced. 34.

SENATOR CAVANAUGH: Mr. President I move the adoption of E&R amendments to LB 34.

SPEAKER: Moved and seconded to adopt the amendments, all in favor say aye, those opposed nay, they are adopted. Senator Syas.

SENATOR SYAS: Go ahead he can make the motion.

SPEAKER: You want to advance this, don't want to talk on this bill?

SENATOR SYAS: Right. I want to comment on the bill I'd like to ask Senator Rasmussen a question?

SPEAKER: Senator Rasmussen do you yield to a question?

SENATOR RASMUSSEN: I'll try.

SENATOR SYAS: Well Senator Rasmussen, since you've, in this bill, you've taken two Mondays away of the long holidays, why don't you just take the other two and be done with it. You see I'm since you've done this, as I can see it there is only two that remain on Monday that we've changed and that used to be Washington's birthday was on the 22nd and there is another one in there, I can't pick up right now, yeah, Columbus Day, why didn't you just take the whole thing and go back to the original and, so that the people other than labor day and one other, you wouldn't have any Mondays at all, I mean, why do we have to do this piece-meal?

SENATOR RASMUSSEN: Probably would be a little more special to the people than the other two don't you think?

SENATOR SYAS: Pardon, I couldn't hear you.

SENATOR RASMUSSEN: I said these two days would probably be more special to the people wouldn't they?

SENATOR SYAS: I still didn't hear you.

SPEAKER: Get a little closer to the mike please.

SENATOR RASMUSSEN: I say these two days would probably be a little more special to the people don't you think.

SENATOR SYAS: What two days?

SENATOR RASMUSSEN: Memorial Day and Veterans Day.

SENATOR SYAS: Well I don't know if they are or not. It could be to some and I know that down where I work these Mondays are pretty special to those people too, to have Saturday, Sunday and Monday off, so it depends on what type, where you are looking at the coin.
